

Alisa Frolova

Senior/Lead Brand Designer with 10 years of experience shaping brands through visual communication. Experienced in leading creative direction, developing scalable design systems and workflows, and delivering complex multi-market work across a wide range of brand touchpoints.

portfolio linkedin work@alicespoon.com

paysend

10.2025 – present

Paysend is a global fintech company providing digital money transfer and payment services for individuals and businesses across 170+ countries

associate principal designer / art director

- Shape and evolve Paysend's refreshed brand identity, developing its visual language and art direction principles while maintaining consistency across teams, channels and markets.
- Lead the creative development of large-scale, multi-market campaigns from initial concept through rollout, working closely with marketing and content teams.
- Build scalable campaign systems and modular templates that support high-volume production across paid media, social and CRM, with efficient localisation across multiple markets and languages.
- Lead visual concept development for brand events, shaping creative direction and messaging with copywriters and directing execution across event identities, environments and merchandise.
- Develop and implement an AI-assisted image production pipeline, defining the brand's photographic direction and visual standards.
- Mentor designers and guide creative output across internal teams and external partners, providing direction, feedback and quality control.

career.io

01.2023 – 08.2025

2 years 8 month

Resume.io is a tool for creating resumes and cover letters in a fast, easiest way. It's part of Career.io: a platform that brings together multiple career-focused services

2025 – lead marketing designer / 2023-2025 – senior graphic designer

- Lead and maintaining the current branding system, introducing unique design solutions and refreshing the brand's presence across paid social, campaigns, landing pages, email, presentations, and digital advertising.
- Drive design-led innovation, implemented AI-driven processes to enhance visual production and reduce reliance on stock assets. Designed templates and scalable asset libraries to speed up delivery and ensure consistency.
- Partnering with motion designers and creative agencies, responding to feedback and questions, and guide to provide a better experience with the branding system.

red_mad_robot

10.2020 – 01.2023

2 years 4 month

red_mad_robot is digital partner for full cycle product development. Company helps to create award-winning digital products and services for startups and well-established companies

senior graphic designer

- Support and maintain the company's corporate identity after redesign, create and maintain internal websites, and control managing task for developers.
- Design and create digital marketing materials, collaborated with multidisciplinary teams to develop conceptual design solutions for campaigns, presentations, and digital experiences.
- Owned the visual identity for internal events, campaigns, and activities across office spaces. Create brand identity for the side projects and initiatives within the Intercom department.
- Create 3D design, directed complex 3D compositions and supervised external artists to ensure high-quality visual execution.